

FARHAN ALSHAMMARY

B.S. HORTICULTURE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

It is my pleasure to express my interest in applying to EY. As an experienced Horticulture professional with 7+ years of experience within the Agricultural Industry, I'm eager to join a company that offers outstanding opportunities for continued growth. I hold a wide array of skills required to excel in a position that demands industry knowledge.

Concerning my niche, I'm skilled in Google Analytics, Contract Creation, Risk Aversion, Knowledge of the Latest Agriculture Laws and Research, Enterprise Resource Planning, Project Management, and Business Model Development. My positive work ethic, interpersonal skills, communication, and desire to excel are evident in my record. Given a chance, I believe I will make a difference and grow with a company like Ernst & Young.

I'm an avid learner, attentive to details, and good at time management, I have worked effectively with all personalities and will work diligently to meet Ernst & Young's needs. I'm detail-oriented and pay close attention to my clients' and employers' needs.

I'm committed to the professional atmosphere of my workplace and strive to exceed expectations. I'm certain my skills, experience, and knowledge will positively aid your business.

I'm confident that you will find my resume an effective means of describing myself. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Thank you for your time and consideration.

WITH RESPECT,
